

Truth Declaration:

I, _____, am deeply loved by the Almighty God. He values me and calls me His bride. He pursues me in creation, with singing, and most of all through His son Jesus, who lived and died because of His passion for a relationship with me. He delights in me and sings over me with love!

I consciously reject the lies I formerly believed about myself and choose instead to believe the truth of God's word about me.

My worth in Christ is not dependent on what I do. My performance is not the basis of my worth; instead it is rooted in His performance which is perfect. My value comes in my relationship with Him, not in my work for Him. I humbly accept His praise in place of the need to be affirmed by others. I accept with gratitude His unconditional love for me.

I am motivated to serve others by His grace in my life; not by guilt. I can relax and rest in His love and listen to His instructions before acting. I am accepted as I am and empowered by God to become who He calls me to be. He receives all the glory for whatever He can do with my life. I love Him because He first loved me. Today I will live and lead from a position of intimacy with Jesus.
